GENERAL DEBILITY and Indigestion

Made Her Life Miserable, but She is Cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Read the testimony of Mrs. E. G.
Monro, Coburg, Victoria, whose portrait is also given:

"Some few years ago I suffered terribly with indigestion and general debility. I could not sleep, and my condition was such as to make my life miserable. None of the many remedies I tried did me any good, and I despaired of ever getting better. One of my friends told me of the blood-purifying and strength-giving properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I began taking it.
Before I had finished the first bottle I felt better, and was thus encouraged to give the medicine a thorough trial. In all I used four bottles, and then was perfectly cured of the grievous trouble which had afflicted me. I now recommend, to anyone suffering as I did.

OWNS SOME OPAL MINES

WAS A THROUGH PASSENGER ON THE MONOWAI.

John Pender on the Subsidence of the Great Boom Which Reigned in Australia.

Among the through passengers on the Monowai was John Pender, whose home is in Melbourne, Australia, where he is a leading manufacturer. He is a relative of the late Sir John Pender of submarine cable fame, and owns large interests in some opal mines in Queensland. On his recent visit to New York he took with him a large quantity of opals in the endeavor to find a market for them in that city. He entered into negotiations with Tiffany & Co. and sold his stock to them, receiving as high as $100 for a single stone.

Speaking of Australian opals to a reporter, Mr. Pender said:

"The opals of Australia are now admitted to be the finest in the world. Our opal mines are in both New South Wales and Queensland. The Tiffanys informed me that the specimen pieces of stone which I sold them were of exceptional value and beauty."

Talking of the boom that not long since existed in Australia, he said:

"There was an awful collapse after the boom. Property went down to one tenth of its previous value. It got finally that there was not a buyer for any, no matter how low it sold.

"I think the reason everybody went speculating in the first place was because there was so much English money that came for investment. If a man had a contract even, for a piece of property, he could go to any bank and get all the money he wanted.

"But we are afraid of booms now, and don't want any more of them. We never want to see any believing as we do that no good can ever come of any of them.
Business is now stiffening up, and we are satisfied."

The Lost Paradise.

The title of the play by the Frawley Co. this evening is "The Lost Paradise." It has met with unprecedented success throughout the east, having been produced in New York City for over 200 nights. In this piece the author deals with the labor question and its conflicting emotions, but he has been careful not to draw offensive conclusions, adroitly placing conditions before the audience and allowing the audience to draw their own opinions.

Set On It Every Time.

You can wager your last dollar on Seattle Beer with the absolute assurance that you will win. No beer is superior to it for purity, for flavor, or as a tonic. Seattle Beer is pure, as it represents the best production of master brewers, — and being made by superior brains and honest labor should be used by all who believe in using the best. On tap or in bottles at the "Criterion."

The Police Vanquished.

The hitherto victorious police rifle team hauled down their colors to Company E. in the return shoot this morning. The military were victorious with a score of 410 over 404 for the police. Honors are now easy between the two teams and a final shoot will probably be arranged for next Saturday.

FOOTBALL TODAY.

Those Who Will Battle for Punahou and the Regiment.

At the Makiki ball grounds this afternoon at 4 o'clock the second of the series of football games arranged for this season will take place, the opposing parties being the Punahou college and First Regiment teams. The latter are much the larger and heavier men but they lack practice, while the lighter college team has the advantage of constant work and superior instruction.
It is said they will develop some tricks and team work that will be a surprise to the soldiers and end in their defeat.

The following are the players selected for today's game:

Punahou—W Greenwell, R E; Prof Howard, R T; A Cunha,

"Put Me Off At Buffalo."

The title of this wellknown song as well as the song itself emanated from the brain of an employee of the Buffalo Brewing Company. That enterprising firm, believing that a man who could compose so catchy an air must have a large and well balanced brain, straightway raised his salary. This has proven to be a good move on their part as is testified by the excellent qualities of their beer, which is dispensed over the bars of the Cosmopolitan, Pacific and Royal saloons at the rate of two glasses for 25c. It is always fresh and cold and life-sustaining.
Or you can get one glass of Buffalo and one of Pabst beer, the fine product of the Milwaukee brewery. Exchangeable checks good at all the above-mentioned resorts are given in change if you only want one drink. "Best beer ever in Honolulu," is the verdict of many of our prominent citizens.

AT THE ART EXHIBITION

WATER COLORS BY MR. DODGE AND MRS. WILLIS.

Typical Hawaiian Scenery Well Treated—Work of Industrial Art by Mr. Day.

Among the contributors to the fine collection of water colors in the present exhibition of the Ki-lohana Art League, Mr. Philip H. Dodge makes a numerous and meritorious showing. His favorite theme is marine scenery and he catches the spirit of what the wild waves are saying quite truly. His "Rocks and Waves," No. 78, is a typical Hawaiian coast view and is treated with great skill. The foreground is a crescent of dark rocks, over the middle of which the waves are seen breaking on the reef beyond.
Above the horns of the crescent the white spray is flung into the air, and this feature of the picture is exceedingly well portrayed.
It is a clean and cool work as a whole. Mr. Dodge's finest work, however, is found in two companion pieces, each half the size of the one just described.
These are No. 20—"Surfbreak" —and No. 70—"Rock at Nawiliwili." The former especially is a little gem, comparing favorably with anything in the gallery. A view of Hanalei, Kauai, No. 31, would be a fitting companion of No. 78. It is very excellent in treatment of distances, with the proper shading of promontories near and far. Its water effects are also good, and there is a true Hawaii an sky.

Mrs. E. M. Willis, wife of the Bishop of Honolulu, is a prolific contributor. Her decorated china was among the works sold by the second day, although, it is said, she has only essayed this branch a few months ago. Mrs. Willis gives in water colors Hawaiian, English and Swiss scenes, many of them of charming effect. "Across the Sulphur Beds," No. 27, is perhaps the best treated of home subjects. In the "Glimpse from Makee Island," No. 68, the mountains at the end of the vista are admirably handled, giving true distance and atmospheric effects.

Leaving the paintings as well as the carvings and mouldings for the present, mention is to be made of a beautiful piece of industrial art. This is a portiere of Hawaiian seeds strung together, which screens one of the doors in the main room.
It is the handiwork of Mr.
C. W. Day, father of Dr. Day, and consists of 33,029 seeds in 44 varieties. Upon a grill of golden shower seeds in the middle is woven the Hawaiian salutation "Aloha." The blending of the colors in the work is beautiful, and the production is well worthy of preservation in the museum.
Two years were required to gather the seeds, prepare and assemble them in this splendid article of house decoration.

Thanksgiving Service.

In accordance with the Proclamation issue by the President, a Thanksgiving service will be held in Central Union Church, Thursday, Nov. 26th, at 11 a. m.
Parts in the service will be taken by Revs. Hiram Bingham, S. E.
Bishop, C. M. Hyde, J. Leading-ham, Oliver Emerson and O. H.
Gulick. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Douglas P.
Birnie. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Goodby Bob.

R. C. Scott the actor leaves by the Australia. He will be pleasantly remembered by the playgoers of Honolulu, and gratefully by the local dramatic talent that he has aided much in bringing to a higher standard.

HONORING OLD AGE.

Reception by the Wife of the Chief Justice for Mr. Pratt.

Wednesday last, November 18th, was the 80th anniversary of the birth of Mr. James Hyde Pratt of Albany, N. Y., the brother-in-law of Mrs. A. F. Judd. Mr. Pratt is the father of Dr. J. S. B. Pratt of Peter High & Co., and is well-known to many of our citizens, having previously visited these islands in 1890. In honor of this octogenarian Mrs. Judd held a reception at her residence on Nuuanu Avenue, to which all the "Judd" relatives were invited, as also the neighbors and many friends.

The house was decorated with flowers and flags, and for two hours or more the stream of persons congratulating Mr. Pratt on the attaining of this ripe age was constant, about 200 persons responding to the invitation. Light refreshments were served by a bevy of young ladies.

Mr. Pratt is a remarkably well preserved man, only lately having retired from a very active business life in New York City and Albany. He is a cousin of President Cleveland, and called upon him during the dark days of Hawaii in 1893. Mr. Pratt takes a deep interest in Hawaiian affairs and finds our climate just the place for one of his age, here escaping the harsh winters of America.

Among those present at the reception were President and Mrs.
Dole, the Nuuanu Valley residents very generally, and many of our prominent people, also Captain Watson of the U. S. S.
Adams, Lieutenant and Mrs. Harris, Ensign Brown and Mrs.
Brown, Mr. M. M. Hurd, wife and daughter, the Misses Flanders and other new comers.

DIED ON THE VOYAGE.

Sudden Death of a Chinaman on the Keauhou.

A Chinese passenger on the steamer Keauhou, which arrived from Kauai early this morning, died on the voyage. The remains were conveyed to the police station where an investigation was held by the Deputy-Marshal.
Dr. Emerson, after an examination of the body, gave it as his opinion that death had resulted from natural causes. The Deputy-Marshal thereupon decided that an inquest was unnecessary and the body was turned over to relatives for burial.

Information for Tourists.

A passenger by the last Colonial steamer was met on the dock by a Milesian American friend, who resides in Honolulu. As the pair waited to have the newcomer's grip sack scrawled over with chalk marks by the Customs Inspector at the gate the stranger remarked to his friend "Do you 'ave much rain 'ere?" RAINIER me boy, gallons of it, just come up to the Anchor Saloon where they keep it always, clear and cool. We'll just be in time for lunch too and that's the only place in town where they serve it up in proper style with a glass of RAINIER BEER to equilibrialize the solids—They went!

Dinner and Dance.

Last night the Hawaiian Hotel gave one of their enjoyable affairs, the usual dinner with a dance following being the program.
The National Quintette Club was in attendance. A large number of Honolulu's society people were present, as well as the passengers from the Rio de Janeiro and officers of the Adams. A similar affair will be given next Wednesday evening, when a Thanksgiving dinner will be served, after which dancing will be the order of the evening.

King Bros. latest consignment of picture frames has taken the town by storm. The designs are elegant, up-to-date and of the handsomest.
